

GREGORY P. WOODSON

Graduating cum laude with a bachelor of science in marketing and finance from the University of Southern California in 1973, Greg continued his education at USC earning a master's in business administration in 1974. Over his 36 year career at Colgate Palmolive Company, he has lived in several countries around the world and risen to the position of Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer reporting to the CEO/Chairman of the Board. A summary of his Colgate career is as follows:

After two years at General Mills in Minneapolis, Greg joined Colgate Palmolive Company in 1976 at Riviana Foods (then a Colgate Palmolive subsidiary) in Houston, Texas. In 1979 he was promoted from Director of Marketing and Sales Mexican Foods Division to Colgate Palmolive headquarters in New York City. While based at headquarters, Greg held several product management marketing positions in the U.S. Company and in 1983 was promoted to Associate Director Fabric Care and in 1985 Senior Associate Director Fabric Care in the Global Business Development Group.

In 1986 Greg began his global moves as he was promoted to Director of Marketing of C-P Thailand, in 1990 was promoted to Country Manager C-P Denmark; in 1991 promoted to General Manager Fabric Care for C-P Europe; then in 1992 promoted to General Manager C-P Puerto Rico. In 1993, Greg was promoted to Managing Director; North Asia Business Development based in Hong Kong and was promoted to Vice President Asia Business Development in 1995, responsible for Colgate's business in eleven countries.

Greg was promoted to Vice President Global Fabric Care Business Development in 1997 and returned to global headquarters in New York City. In 1999 Greg was promoted to President Global Fabric Care and then in 2002, when the Global Fabric Care and Household Surface Care businesses were combined to form Global Home Care, Greg was promoted to President of Global Home Care, one of the four core businesses of the corporation.

In October 2007 Greg was promoted to Vice President, Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer and reported to the CEO/Chairman of the Board.

After 36 years at Colgate Palmolive and reaching the age of 60, Greg retired and moved to Lake Tahoe in July 2012 where he is enjoying skiing, hiking, boating and Angel investing.

Greg is actively involved with the University of Southern California Marshall School Of Business. Greg is currently a member of as well as past Chairman of the Dean's Corporate Advisory Board for the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California.

Greg has also served on the TKE Educational Foundation as a board member, Vice Chairman and Chairman of the Board. In 2012, Greg was named Chairman Emeritus of the TKE Educational Foundation.

Greg has been married to Cay for 43 years and has three daughters and five grandchildren.